Tools to know, recognise, deal with the different roles to play.

Welcome* to this study which has the task of training the great leaders of tomorrow... but also the perfect followers!!!

If you have felt and felt that you were unable to lead the scene, that you were unable to take on the responsibilities of carrying the story forward or choosing the path to follow... or if instead, like Atlas, you always feel the weight of the entire world on your shoulders , as if every scene and the fate of humanity depended on you...welcome*!

The story requires both roles which are essential and necessary.

We will play to grow as leaders but also as leaders
